If you are interested in initiating a practical local project there is a small pot of grant money available for its implementation.

On an annual basis a revenue budget is allocated for the development of practical Environmental Stewardship and Sustainable Development projects in Gwynedd.

This budget aims to develop innovative projects that support the general principles of Environmental Stewardship, Sustainable Development and Local Agenda 21.

So far, projects that fulfilled the following aims have received grant support:

- Raising awareness of Sustainable Development and Local Agenda 21
- Encouraging participation
- Encouraging renewable project development
- Working in partnership
- Promoting practical environmental education.

Applications should be made in writing to the above address.
